Pikedale contains an area of about 140,000 acres, more or less, every acre of which is available for granting purposes, and for which the vender holds an instrument of lease. Contained in the foregoing area are 3506 acres of purchased land, and the lesses has the privilege of solecting, without compatition and free from conditions, twenty thousand four hundred and eighty (20,480) acres at (10s), ten shillings per acre. The general character of the country is lightly timbered, open, undusting ridges, sound and healthy for sheep, and of great carrying capabilities. There is a considerable portion of fine rich land tying between the ridges, and the whole of the country is permanently watered by never-failing creeks. The run at present is not half stocked.

SEEEP,—The high quality of the Sheep is undoubted.

Steeked. The high quality of the Sheep is undoubted. There are few better judges of such stock than the owner, and ever since he purchased Pikedale (now mearly 12 years ago) the sheep have been under his practical supervision; and personal management. Even before that time the Pikedale Sheep were noted for their superiority, and neither time ner trouble has been spared by the vendor in culling and classing them, nor money in purchasing the best bred Hams. The result is a high standard of exclusion.

Piredale Sheep were noted for their superiority, and neither time ner trouble has been spared by the vendor in culling and classing them, nor money in purchasing the best tred Hams. The result is a high standard of exlence.

Among the sheep now on Pikedale is a small flook of imported ewes and rame numbering, with their progeny, about 50 head. There is also a special stud flook of from 500 to 500 ewes, and another stud flook of about 2500 ewes. Exclusive of the rame required for the station, there are 1000 runs from 1 to 3 years for sale. The average weight of the '74 olip was 2 lbs. 10 oz. per sheep, and the average price a fraction over (25 edd) two shillings and eixpence pr lb. These facts the agents can certify to, having examined the shearing returns and the account sales. A reference to Stables' circulars will show that high prices have been obtained for the "Gunn" brand for many years, and the agents would draw special attention to how little this brand suffered in comparison with others during the depression that existed in the wool market from '67 to '70. This fact was particularly referred to in a letter recombly received by the vendor from his London brokers. The writer congravitated Mr. Gunn on the high character and uniform quality of his wool, and strongly recommended him to continue his present system of breeding; adding that should another depression arise such wool as his (Mr. Gunn's) would unfer but little.

CATTLE.—The cattle are a very quiet, well-bred herd, and sre all running in paddocks. They have been chiefly bred up from the original station milkers.

IMPROVEMMENTS.—The develling-house, though standard of the other improvements. The rest of the head station appointments and soccessories are first-class and well arranged. There is an accolent garden and large vine-yard. Ample store-room, numerous out-houses and cottages for the men. cart sheds, for, &c. The great sim, however, of the proprietor has been to spend money on improvements of a reproductive nature, and for this purpose neither

TESTIMONIALS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PARKER GAZETTE.

Sir.—Having got thrown from my horse about a fortmight back, injuring my left arm and shoulder, I went to Dr. SAM the next day, who told me that my collar-bons was broken, and that it would be five or six weeks before I would be able to go to work. He then wrapped mu up with bandages, keeping me thus for a week, causing me to suffer very much. Not feeling satisfied with his treatment, I went to Dr. MARSDEN, who refused to do anything for me, as I was under the care of Dr. Sam. I then went to the Chinere Doctor, GEORGE ON LEE, who, after baving examined me, raid there were no bones broken, and threw the bendages off, but treated me for a bruke on the arm, and told me I could go to work in a week from that time, and I now feel that I am quite able to follow my usual occupation.

I have, therefore, every confidence in his skill as a medical men, and consider it my duty to make the above feats as publicly known as possible.

Having got a fall from my horse on Friday, 11th instant, knocking my right shoulder out of joint, I went to Dr. Marsden, who said there was but little wrong, but asked me to come back next morning. When I came back he said there was something wrong, and endeavoured to put it right, but failed to do so, and told me to come at 2 p.m., when he would put me under altoroform. But when I came he said he would have nothing more to do with me. I then went to the Chinese doctor, GBORGE ON LEE, who set my shoulder in five minutes, and I experience no pain whatever now.

Sir,—Will you kindly oblige me by inserting the accompanying paragraph which I copy from the Western Bramines, Orange, November 28, 1874, and oblige George on Lee. Parkes, December 2, 1874.

Parkes, December 2, 1874.

Molono.

(From a Correspondent.)

"The advent of George On Lee in Molong has astonished the good folks by his gentlemanly deportment and the suavity of his manners—so different to our experience of others that profess the healing art. Crowds attended the inn where the worthy doctor was domiciled, and all were highly delighted with the result of their consultations.
Ferstons who had been suffering for years under the injudictious treatment of ignorant tyres were instantly relieved.
There was no shaking of the head or mysterious clamour shout the incurable cases, but the patients were becomely informed when the case was a hopoless one, that he could de nothing for them. The doctor graduated at the Kern Been, or principal College at Canton, and from the number of wonderful cures performed by him, must be considered our modern Esculapius."

To THE APPLICTED.

Having had my leg severely injured at Lowe's machine, two years ago, and not obtaining any relief, and my limb being in great danger, I went to GBORGE ON LEE—Chinese Doctor—and he effected a complete cure. I therefore strongly recommend him to all persons similarly sillicted.

Sir,—Allow me, through the medium of your valuable paper, to bear my grateful testiment to the skill and ability of George On Lee, Chinese Bootor of Parkes, in having affected a complete ours of heart and long disease, from which I had been suffering for sixteen years, togother with chart.

which I had been substring to make the property of the mercy of I am thankful to say that I am now, by the mercy of God, and the unremitting care and attention of Dr. On Lee, restored from the brink of the grave to daily increasing health and strength. Gure was effected in three months.

JANE MATTISON.

I am happy in being able to bear testimony to the skill shown by the Chinese Doctor—GEORGE ON LEE—in the treatment of a disease of the cheat, from which I have suffered for the last three years. Both in Tasmania and Sjdney I have consulted various Medical Practitioners without obtaining the relief sought for, and in one week Dr. On Lee has afforded me perfect cases, and, from the time which has elapted since the cure, I am led to believe it is a permanent one.

WILLIAM A. STANLEY, GAZETTE Office, Parkes.

Michael Rinehles, who has been afflicted upwards of five years and four months with inflammation of the liver, a discharge of blood from none and month twice a week—and that very thick. I have been attended by a docter who could do me no good, but I continued to get worse; I then applied to George On Lee, Ohinese doctor, in elevent weeks he made a complete cure of me. 1 beg to recommend all parties affiliated with the same complaint to George On Lee, Chinese doctor.

I, John Fuller, have been suffering for upwards of three months from heart disease and violent pains in the stomach; after trying all chemical medicines I received no relief—in fact, got worse. I then tried a doctor in this neighbourhood, but could get no relief. I began to despair of ever getting my health again, when I perceived in the PARNERS OAKETE Dr. On Lee's wonderful curse; I then applied to him, and he gave me great relief in a short time. I have been under his care for seven weeks, and he has restored me to as good health as I ever enjoyed, therefore I beg to recommend him to all persons similarly affiliated.

JOHN PULLER.

I, John Plood, wish to make known to all, that a short time back I received a severe injury from a fall out of a cart; I thought I should never be able to work again. I applied to George On Lee, Chinese doctor, who in the short space of two weeks made a complete cure of me. I now, by the blessing of God, am able to return to my daily labour.

I had been suffering with rheumatics in my knee for several months, and could get no relief from the doctors. I was, however, recommended to try George On Lee, Chinase doctor, who made a perfect cure in a week. I therefore, in the interest of the suffering, make this as public as possible.

JOHN MURPHY. Parkes, February 5, 1874.

Having been suffering from some pieces of quartz in my eye for more than a week, during which time I was attended and treated by one of our chemists at Parkes, but got no relief, I began to despire of ever getting my eyesight again, as a skin was growing completely over it. I was then induced to try George On Lee, Ohinese doctor, at Parker, who gave me immediate relief, and by applying some chemicals brought the bits of quartz out in a few hours. I therefore feel it my duty to make this known as widely as possible.

TRENCE M'MAHON.

Parker, February 5, 1874. TRRENCE M'MAHON.

Having tried two supposed doctors, and finding no relief, my arm, wounded by the bite of a dog, whereby it received a very deep incision, was in a frightful state. I then put it under the care of George On Lee, who eased the pains within an hour or so, and cured it completely within four days. EDWARD PLINT. Parkes, February 24, 1874.

Having received a fracture in my right arm, a Parkee dector failed to set it straight, and, after five weeks of his treatment, the fracture seemed as bad as ever—my arm painful and nucless. I had to try the doctor at Forbas, but a refused to have anything to do with it. At last I consulted George On Lee, who broke and ro-set the arm, in a manner nearly paintess, but quick. Within three weeks my sim was completely cured.

DANKE, Nicoustan

Parkes, February 26, 1874. DANIEL NICHOLSON. Having had two children ailing for about three weeks with fever, which flew to the heart—my wife having also a bad breast—I was induced to call in the aid of George On Lee, Chinese doctor, who, I am happy to state, in a very short time, effected a cure of all three.

SAMUEL RALTON,

Our son, aged sixtern months, had been in delicate health almost from his birth, and had become so ill of late that he could eat or sleep but little, and seemed in continual pair: in fact, we had despaired of his life. But having braid of the many cures effected by George On Lee, Chinese accor, we called him in, and in the course of a few days he effected a cure. The child has now a good appetite and sleeps well, we therefore feel it our duty to make this public, for the sake of parents having sick or delicate children.

"Grinsbury, Banbury, 10th August, 1874.
"Dear Sir,—I beg to tender you my grateful thanks for the benefit I have derived from taking your 'world-tamed Blood Mixture,' I had been in several hospitals for my complaints—ulcerated sores—but without deriving any benefit, and had given up all hopee of getting cured. Some weeks ago I bought a small bottle of your 'Blood Mixture,' and since that time I have had six more, the effect of which has been miraculous.

"Yours faithfully,"

WONDERFUL CURE IN A BAD CASE OF BLOOD POISONING.

"75, Westminster Bridge Boad, Lambeth, "Londou, S.E., 9th July, 1874.

"Sir,—I return my sincare thanks to you for the great benefit 1 have derived by taking your celebrated 'Blood Mixture,' I will state my complaints to you. I had an injured finger, and unfortunately, got it poisoned, then it gradually became worse, My arms, face, and body came out in pimples and blotches, and could exercely stand on my legs. However, I saw an advertisement from you; I spreed, as a last rescuree, with my wife, to try your 'Blood Mixture,' and, thank God, the second day I felt relief, and in one week the pimples began to die away; in three weeks I went to work again.

"Yours truly,
"To Mr. Clarke."

"Mr. Clarke.—Sir.—I have much pleasure in stating that your 'Blood Mixture' and 'Skin Lotion, year's standing; the core was brought on by a soald, and I never thought it would get better; however, I sent to your agent, Mr. W. Stophen Wilson, chemist, Long Gauseway, Peterborough, for the world-famed 'Blood Mixture,' and, after a few weeks, quite recovered. I shall be glad to answer any questions on the subject.

"I am yours gratefully,

IMPORTANT ADVICE TO ALL. — Cleanse the vitisted blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

"Sir,—Seeing by the Herald that you are desirous of obtaining information from your EYE-WATER castemers as to the effect produced by the application of it, I send you the following paticulars:—I had a little boy suffering from sore eyes for about three months, and I was told by three duly qualified deoters that they could not do more for him, and we expected he would lose his sight. I then was advised by Mr. Overell, of North Shore, to try Dr. J. CROFT'S Bye-water. I did so, and found it most efficacious; at the end of the first day my boy could open his eyes, on the second almost well, and by night of the third day perfectly cared, and have remained so ever since. The above took place November, 1873. I have pleasure in recommending it to the public.

"Dear Sir.— Many months ago I had been engaged for some time in writing by candle and lamp light, consequently my eyes became very weak and inflamed. I then tried Dr. J. CROFT'S Kye-water, and have pleasure in stating that one application thoroughly restored them, and up to this date they remain well.

"D. Gurra, Accountant, "324, George-street."

"Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in testifying to the genuine efficacy of the painless lotion I procured from you —Dr. J. CROET'S—as my eyes were perfectly cured by one application of it after upwards of twenty years'affliction (two years of which I was in London under most highly approved treatment without satisfactory results). This wonderful cure was by Dr. J. CROET'S Eye-water, October S, 1872, and up to this date, April, 1876, I have no symptoms of relapse.

Easter Mondar.

but the sun seems to-day bent upon making up for lost time, and is siming with an intensity which, operating upon the soddened soil, creates a most oppressive atmosphere. Friday, Saturday, and paning all been wet, the usual holiday and Easter has been this year quite spoiled. The character has been this year quite spoiled. The all all been the back of the season have been well attended at Easter has been this year quite spoiled. The all all been the year quite spoiled was covered with a check of the season have been well attended despite the wet weather. In one church the well despite the wet weather. In one church the wall despite the wet weather. In one church the wall despite the west weather, in one church the wall despite the weather the weather in the we settlement of the lands as of even greater importance than the education question.

The Government have given way in the matter of the gratuitous conveyance by railway of stock for the forthcoming Exhibition, at Toowoomba under the auspices of the Royal Agricultural Society, a deputation of influential local men having urged upon the Minister for Works a reconsideration of his decision. Whether these privileges are wise or not was hardly the question; but, as they had been accorded to other societies, it was difficult to understand upon what ground the exception was proposed to be made in this case.

The abundance of grass everywhere is having a very favourable effect upon stock of all kinds; and abundance of fat cattle are fluding their way to market. The prospects of feed for winter are excellent; and, although it was hardly possible for the cold weather to come on before the breakup of the drought, yet the rains withheld their genial influence upon the pasture to so late a period that fears were beginning to be entertained lest, when they did come, they should be too late.

Talking of fat cattle reminds me that the journeymen butchers are altring a grievance. They complain that Sundays and week days are all alike to them, and that they have no day of reat, as legitimate cause of complaint enough, and admitting of a partial remedy in cool weather, if the trade choose to combine. A very little forethought on the part of housskeepers would not make any demand upon the men's time on that day; but in this climate the only remedy for the grievance in question, which would be spipicable in summer, is clearly to make Sunday a "banyan" day. As usual, however, when demands are made by large bodies of tradesmen, there are some of the men who apparently are doing their best to ruin the chance of a Sunday holiday by including a demand for concessions on Saturday night also. This they propose to accomplish by inducing housekeepers to order on Friday the meat they require on both the following days; and as this is unreason it is not unlikely that the whole movement may collapse.

Two more vacancies have occurred in the Logislative Assembly, by the resignation of the Ingislative Assembly, by the Fourier and Maryborough. There will be a good deal of new blood in the House when it meets, and it is impossible to prognosticals to parties will shape. It is significant, however, that candidates carefully reserve their independence of action; and it is expected that upon the ashes of the old squatting party, which has nearly ceased to exist, there will arise a new political organization representing the bona-fide conditional purchaser, be he large or small, who is not also a pastoral tenant. Whether the interest is sufficiently strong for this yet is open to question; but in the next Parliament it probably will be.

The Municipal Council of Brisbane is in a very unsettled state. In the February elections some formal irregularities have led to the upsetting, by the Supreme Court, of the election for one of the wards; and soveral of the other aldermen, feeling that their elections were insecure on the feeling that their offering taemselves. An investigation is also going on into certain alleged fishy transactions between one of the aldermen and the City Surveyor. The officer has been meanwhile suspended, and I may have something further to say upon the subject.

Our colony is being over-patronised by the subjects of the Celestial Empire. John, I suppose, finds that there is as much to get, with fewer restrictions among us than in the other colonies, and he has come by hundreds, and is coming by thousands. It is very doubtful whether the people will stand this, especially on the diggings, and I shall not be surprised to find in the Government programme a proposition to make our shores for the future less attractive to pigtails, except in connection with pigs.

Among the recent distinguished arrivals in Brisbane Intely have been some English perch, destined for the storage reservoir, from which Brisbane derives its water supply. For this introduction the colony is indebted to the Hon. W. H. Walsh, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, who, being on a visit to Tasmanis, appears to have thought he would be doing good service to Queensland by being the first to introduce this excellent fish into our waters. I am told that out of forty-eight fish dispatched only thirteen have arrived alive; but the species is so hardy, and holds its own against all-comers so sturdily that this number is probably sufficient for the accomplishment of Mr. Walsh's purpose.

JOACHIM V. O'SHANASSY.

On the order of the day being read for the candidration in Committee of the Whole of the proprioty of presenting in didness to the Governor, praying that his Excollency will be plessed to cause to be placed on the Estimates for he prevent year a sum not exceeding $500, for the purpose in tabling the Crown to be represented on the Parsing of the appeal in the case Josebim v. O'Shanassy, now before he l'rivy Conneil, and the decision in which will decide the question as to the legality of the conditional purchases which have been made by infants or minors under the Crown Lands Alienation Act of 1851—

Mr. FARINELL suggested that it would be well to postpous the matter for a week, in order to allow of the production of all the papers in the matter. He moved that he order of the day stand an order of the day for this day work.

Mr. ROBERTSON said that whitever information could be got together should be produced, but he did not see what information could be supplied which the honmamber for St. Leonorads did not already possess. His hen; friend gave this matter a thorough examination—in examination such as no other free selection once had received in the colony. The long member had rightly ouncalled aix out of the sight solections, and sustained Jotchim in regard to the other two. The hon member trade the said of this land to these two Josebims.
The hon member having made the rule, Sir John O'Shanassy raiked the question whether he had a right to sell. On all the useues raised before the Court, excepting this; Sir John O'Shanassy allowed judgment to go against him. Therefore the early issue left was as to whether the Government used a right to sell the land. The late land disalster sold the land. But Sir John O'Shanassy denies the right of the Crown to sell land to persons under twenty-cue years o I sign and the country should well consider the market, it was a nation of more importance than some hazard market as persent inclined to think. And he said that if the fluuse declined to allow the Government to be represented by fore the Privy Council, in order that it might upbold what had lowen the practice for many years, it would be bits pecusioned to times. And as said that if the House declined to allow the Government to be represented before the Privy Council, in order that it might uphold what had seen the practice for many years, it would be disgraceful.

Mr. PITZPATRIOK thought it was very desirable that the House should be put in possession of all the pipers relating to this case. It was desirable to know how the Government initiated the matter in Cabinet. He thought the speech just made by the Colonial Sorriary was very unfair to the hon, member for St. Leonards. It was well thought the appear that the late Secretary for Lands perversely did what was now claimed to be illegal. The hon, member for St. Leonards. It was well known that Grown taw officers and the Supreme Court had held that minora could select. But what had the late Secretary for Lands to discuss that the selections made by Jozobium were not cocupied according to law. The question of minority was only slanced at incidentally. His great objection to this proposal was, that it tended to believe that the argument of the such as a state of the selection which had been made in the names of minors. He had never been in favour of free selection by minors, and he believed that the practice of the minority would have to legalize the selection which had been made in the names of

Mr. BUCHANAN proceeded to refer to the settings of the hon, member for Yass in his capacity of land agent employed by Sir John O'Shanasay.

Mr. HI/PATRICK rose to order, and objected to allowing the hon-member to proceed.

He did not approve of the course adopted by them. He did not approve of the course adopted by the hon-member for the Western Gold-fields.

Mr. BUCHANAN maintained that he could not take a single step in this matter without encountering the hon-member for Yass.

The balers out of both the boats got lost. They were in the boats in the "day done; I saw them. But we picked up some water time, which the emigrants used floating about, and we knecked the tops off them and used them as balers. The starboard boat did not succeed in picking up any time, but Mr. Romains gave us one when we changed, and we cut the top off and stopped the mouth with rag, and so made a second baler out of that. Before taking us on board and this arrangement the men in the boat had to bale with their caps. They tore out the air tight time encased in wood from the sides to use as balers, but they were of very little use, they only shovelled up water. In the boat all we did was to lend one another a hand about the boat; there was not much talk among us. The biggest, fattest, and healthiest-looking men went off first. It was not from them that the blood was obtained, but from the other men. I only ate twice. I drank whenever a yein was opened. I felt better on the last two days than a few days before. I had little hopes, but I kept up my spirits till the day I was picked up. I felt better when the barque passed us, for it guve me hope. We thought we were on the track of them then. I intended keeping myself up to the last if I could. We made the change between the pert and starboard boat as soon as we sighted the other boat. In the boat was soon as we sighted the other boat. THE DEBTS OF THE WORLD.

(From the Pall Mall Gazette.)

Wa endeavoured nearly two years ago to give in these columns an approximate estimate of the national debts of the world. We concluded on that occasion that the indebtedness of the world might be placed at about £4,200,000,000. During the two years which have since passed there is good reason to believe that a large addition has been made to this sum. New countries and old countries vie with each other in the money markets of Europe; and even China has within the last few weeks commenced a national debt. There is considerable difficulty in ascertaining the liabilities of the various nations which are thus hearily indebted. The annual almanaes give us some assistance in the subject; and the careful information which the Recommist publishes in the "Investor's Manual" affords also considerable help in solving the question. The following are the best estimates which we can form of the principal national debts at the present time. We have contrasted them with the figures which we gave two years ago:—

Debt (estimated).

Country. 1878. 1850. Increase. Descease,

E8,589,060,000 £4,640,000,000 £550,000,000 £55,600,000

Net increase £317,000,000

The apparent increase in the indebtedness of the United States and the apparent decrease in the indebtedness of the United States and the apparent decrease in the indebtedness of the Russian Empire are due to our having followed on this occasion a different and, we believe, more accurate authority than in 1873. These ten countries, therefore, owe in the sggregate upwards of £4,000,000,000,000, and have added nearly 10 per cent, to their indebtedness during the last two years. No other country in the world owes anything like £100,000,000. The ten next largest debts stand, we believe, about as follows:—Brazil, £62,000,000; Holland, £80,000,000; Egypt, £75,000,000; Portugal, £69,000,000; Mexico, £63,000,000; Australusian colonies, £46,000,000; Peru, £37,000,000; Belgium, £30,000,000 imaking a total of £550,000,000. The twenty largest national debts in the world amount, therefore, in the aggregate to £4,500,000,000. If we add £180,000,000 for the smaller debts, the national indebtedness of the world must amount to £4,560,000,000.

It is nearly as difficult to ascertain the charges which these debts involve as the amount of the debts which these debts involve as the amount of the debts.

Siz,—The inquiries hald by the Marine Board of this colony late the cause of the different sections that the cause of the different sections they investigate are not published in sections; consequently, the public, and expectally the national portion of it, to whom the information would be both useful and in creating, are left in a great measure in ignorance upon the subject. I am informed—whether rightly or no, I cannot say—that in South Australia this is always done. You would confer a boon upon seafaring men by doing the same in your columns.

If, as I am given to understand, the steamship Helen Mac-gregor was lost through striking upon the rock upon which the Urara strucks and was lost some years ago, it would be advisable that the harbour suthorities at the Ciarence River should lose so time in plesing marks on abore which will exactly indicate the position of the rock referred to, so that vessels night be in-depondent of the body altogether, should than necessary mark by associated to a way; an object to the land, there is nothing to prevant conspicuous feeding beacons (shifting them as occasion requires) being placed to load a stranger into the river. Captain Turner may have been to blanc for moning out under the circumstances, but greater biance attaches to the harbour authorities, upon whose no reflection has been east by the recent inquiry.

SATURDAY, APRIL 3, 1675.

SATURDAY, APRIL 3, 1875.

In the Legislative Assembly, yesterday,
The Ministration Works, in answer to a question put by Mr. Cameron, respecting one of the new railway engines lately supplied to the Government of the colony, said that one of the engines supplied by Messra. Valc, Lacy, and Mort had a defectively desired to but it was not considered dangerous to human life. The contractors had already been called upon to remedy the defects at their own expense.
Mr. W. G. Bhowax (in the absence of Mr. Terry) moved,—That this House will, on the next day of sitting, resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole to consider the propriety of bringing in a bill to inforce claims against the Crowa. Motion agreed to Mr. Farnell moved,—1. That the Warstah Coal Company's Bill be referred to a select committee for consideration and report; and that the evidence taken before a former committee be referred to this committee. 2. That the said committee consist of Mr. Lackey, Mr. W. C. Browne, Mr. Stevens, Mr. Cun-Lecn, Mr. Moss, Mr. Thomas Brown, Mr. W. H. Sutter, Mr. Hay, Mr. Hill, and the mover. Motion agreed to.
Mr. W. C. Browne moved,—1. That the All

Mr. W. C. Browns moved, — 1. That the All Saints Parsonage Sale Bill be referred to a select. committee for consideration and report. 2. That such committee consist of Mr. Burns, Mr. Stuart, Mr. Farnell, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Teece, Mr. Jacob, Mr. Scholey. Mr. Montague, and the mover. Motion agreed to.
Mr. W. Foustan laid on the table of the House the annual report of the Board of Audit, and abstracts of Bank accounts. The documents were ordered to Mr. Forerer's statement shows that there was no need for any elaborate apology as to his inability to deal with figures. It is true that he is always more at home in the discussion of principles than in the discussion of details, and in arguing rather than in expounding. At the same time he has furnished us with one more proof that a man whose mental powers have been exercised generally can deal with a fair amount of success with any new subject to which his attention is directed. can deal with a fair amount of success with any new subject to which his attention is directed. There is nothing very mysterious in figures after all, and the confusion that too often prevails in Budget discussions is far more due to confusion in the subject than in the object. It is not so much that the figures are in a fog as that hon, members themselves are in a fog, and have too little accustomed themselves to think and speak with precision.

About the time that the above of Missian

About the time that the change of Ministry was taking place we heard many rumours to the effect that one result of the alteration would the effect that one result of the alteration would be the confutation of the errors of the late Treasurer. We heard occasionally some talk about a complete exposure of all his mistakes and a rectification of his figures. The effect, however, of Mr. Forster's statement has been to show that Mr. Llovd's figures were all correct so far as they referred to matters actually realised, and that his estimates were only wrong from being too modest and within the mark, which is a mistake on the right side the great Treasure. mistake on the right side that every Treasurer should try to make. The figures indeed are not really the figures of the Minister himself: not really the figures of the Minister himself:
they are prepared by the officials in the department, who are personally responsible for their accuracy, and in that respect Mr.
Fonszer perhaps made an improvement in the ordinary practice, by putting the explanatory statement of the figures in a form which made it virtually an official document, leaving the rest of the Budget speech, so far as it related to the exposition of principles, to be the work of the Minister principles, to be the work of the Ministe

Mr. Ponsten's statement is, as he himsel explained, merely supplementary to that of Mr. LLOYD. He impeaches none of his prede-cessor's statements as to matter of faut; he cessor's statements as to matter of fact; he brings down the history of our revenue and expenditure to a later period, turns some estimates into history, and gives revised estimates in the light of fuller experience. The general statement remains much as it was before—viz., that we have a surplus of about £800,000 as the result of surplus of about £800,000 as the result of the proeperity of the last two years, and that this surplus exists after having entirely cleared away all our deficiency loan, and after having taken off some taxes. Curiously enough this surplus is about the same amount as that of the original deficiency. It took us ten years to get rid of a deficiency of £800,000; how long will it take us to get rid of a surplus of the same amount? Mr. Fonsten differs from his predecessor as to the mode in which the surplus should be dealt with, but, the difference is more in treatment than in fundamental principle. Whether the interest on the debt due on the let of January should be charged mental principle. Whether the interest on the debt due on the let of January should be charged to the let of January or the 31st of December is not a matter of primary importance. There is something to be said on both sides, and we preferred the plan proposed by the let. Treasurer, simply because he brought the book-keeping account more into harmony with actual fact, and prevented hon, members from being misled by the balance brought forward in thinking that they had a surplus available, when really that surplus was largely pre-engaged and in fact some of it was paid away on the very first day of the year. For instance, there was due on the 1st of January this year the sum of £261,000, for the half-year's interest on the public debt. Of course if this sum is brought forward it swells the surplus with which the year begins but really as it was

Mr. Firstatick thought the remarks of the Premier ill-timed. The whole case must be clearly before the Privy Council. The barrister asked for would not be required; and, it he were to be engaged, he would not be required; and, it he were to be engaged, he would not be allowed to speak on behalf of the Government.

Mr. Buchanar expressed his surprise at the action of the member for Yass, and opposed the adjournment.

In the course of Mr. Buchanan's speech, Mr. Pankas, as a point of order, submitted that the member for the Western Gold-fields was anticipating the member for the Western Gold-fields could not now be persisted in, attention having been called to the irregularity.

The Spraker ruled that the course adopted by the member for the Western Gold-fields could not now be persisted in, attention having been called to the irregularity.

Hereupon a very lengthy discussion arose on the point of order, in which Mr. Surisbiana, Mr. Pankall, Mr. Robertson, Mr. Gannur, and others to keep the five persons and the postponement of the order of the day was ultimately, on division, and therefore to that call the postponement of the order of the day.

The order of the day was ultimately, on division, postponed until Friday next, by a majority of 28 to 3.

Mr. Macukrosu moved that the Ultimo Presbyterian Church Trustees Bill bereferred to a select committee of consideration and report, with power to send for presson there are directly than at present, and of Mr. Charles, Mr. Parkas, Mr. Charles, Mr. Parkas, Mr. Charles, Mr. Parkas, Mr. Directly the committee being appointed or select committee of the consideration and report, with power to send for presson there would only be compensated by the trust we debtors would stand on the opposite side of the action's creditors, and to that extent our trust in others would be compensated by the trust we debtors would stand on the opposite side of the charles of the consideration and report, with power to send for presson the consideration and report, with power to send for presson £200,000 a year out of the land fund towards the payment of old debt or the construction of 200,000 a year out of the land fund towards the payment of old debt or the construction of new works; it is arbitrary to fix twenty shillings an acre as the upset price of land; and it is arbitrary to fix five shillings as the amount payable by the free-selector, and arbitrary to fix three years as the primary tenure of a conditional purchase. What we have to do is not to get rid of fixed figures but to see that we incorporate into our law sound principles, and it is a sound principle that part of our debt should be extinguishable. If everybody had the Spartan virtue of Mr. Fonster, and was as ready to put theory into practice, and if the Assembly could always be relied upon to do what is right and just, irrespective of party inclinations or the pressure of bad times, then we should be quite content to leave the arrangement for the extinction of debt to the annual determination of Parlisment; but human nature being what we have found it to be, we should prefer some fixed arrangement, even though it should be somewhat arbitrary. somewhat arbitrary.

It is notorious that from the time responsible government commenced we have to some extent borrowed money for expenses that should have been defrayed out of the current revenue; exactly how much we could not say, because we know of no account ever placed before the Parliament which illustrated the principles on which the distinction should be made, and which carries it out in minute detail. But there can be no doubt that the amount is considerably in excess of our present surplus. If we were to revise the whole of our financial history for the last eighteen years, and square up accounts fairly on the basis of a sound principle, rigidly adhered to, the consolidated revenue would have to hand over to the loan fund a very considerable amount of money. Mr. Forster practically admits this, and, without going into detail, proposes to do something It is notorious that from the time responout going into detail, proposes to do something towards redressing the balance by spending part of the surplus revenue on works which it has been customary to pay for out of borrowed money. He admits the principle; he only objects to be bound by particular rules and to particular sums.

THE Legislative Assembly can scarcely be congratulated upon the mode in which the motion censusing the conduct of his Excellency the GOVERNOR on the occasion of the late crisis GOVERNOR on the occasion of the late crisis was dealt with. Honorable members were seked to affirm three propositions—first, that the Governon had been guilty of, disrespect towards the Assembly; second, that he had acted in a manner for which there was no precedent to be found in our history since responsible government was insugurated in this colony; and, third, that his conduct was calculated to injure the public interests by causing unnecessary delay at a time when prompt and judicious action was urgently required. It was not attempted to be shown that his Excellency the Governon had not a constitutional right to take the course he pursued, and no man can the GOVERNOR had not a constitutional right to take the course he pursued, and no man can make such an attempt without exposing at the same time his own ignorance of the theory and practice of British government. Although it could not be denied that the course taken by his EXCELLENCY was without precedent in this colony, it is well known to parliamentarians that numerous precedents are to be found in English history of a member of the House of Levida forming an Administration, and we of Lords forming an Administration; and we are entitled in times of perplexity to look to the English Parliament for examples to Mr. W. Fourne and the more. Motion agreed to be princial.

Mr. W. Fourne had not not twice of the House the of Blank accounts. The documents were ordered to be princial.

It is a bill to make better regulations for the Areas of the third and the property of bringing in a bill to make better regulations for the Areas of the property of bringing in a bill to make better regulations for the Areas of the Whole for passage and the State of January, to meet and both the passage and the strength of the passage and the passage and the strength of the passage and the passage a question; it simply leaves the matter undetermined. The House by a negative vote on the previous question simply decides that the original motion shall not be now put, and it the mayor of the first or original s open to the meyer of the first or original question to bring it forward again upon due notice being given. All that the House did nouse being given therefore the other evening when it negatived the previous question was to prevent Mr. Buchanan's motion from being put at that BUCHANAN'S motion from being put at that particular time, and the treatment was altogether too mild for a proposition which had nothing to commend it either in its substance or in the mode in which it was introduced to

It was put forward in the course of the debate as an argument in favour of the PREMIER that as he could not, from motives of delicacy, vote either for or against the motion, he had no way of escape but by moving the previous question. The question was one which need have touched the sensibilities of the PREMIER have touched the sensibilities of the Parmier only so as to have prevented his voting, and it might have been very effectively dealt with although the name of Mr. Romentson had not appeared in the division. The reason stated was, no doubt, sufficient in its personal application; but it was not sufficient to justify the House in coquetting with an important question and treating it in an incomplete and indecisive manner. The honorable the Premier might have satisfied any scruples he felt on the ground of delicacy by exercising that kind of moral courage which was a short time ago set forth with such hilarious effect by the hon member for Northumberland, when justifying his absence from a division, and justifying his absence from a division, and which was more recently illustrated by the which was more recently illustrated by the candidates for the office of Speaker, who voided the indelicacy of voting on a motion avoided the indesteacy of voting on a motion in which they were personally concerned by simply absenting themselves from the division. There are some who hold that there would not have been any more indelicacy in the PREMIER voting against such a motion than there was in the attitude he against and on the accordance of the ide he assumed on the occasion of the ssing of the resolution which brought about a change of Ministers; but in matters of taste, as in matters of conscience, each man must judge for himself.

On the occasion to which we refer the previous question was negatived by 20 to 23, and the result of the division appears to have been in some quarters misunderstood. Anyone who will look down the list of the names of those who voted for the previous question—that is, who voted that the question should be put at once—cannot fail to observe that a large number of them could not possibly have the least sympathy with the mever of the original motion with whose name their own were recorded in the discent. Their object was clearly to have the quedion put so that they might reject it by an overwhelming majority. It was stated by one honorable member that twenty of the twentythree members who voted with the ayes did so in order that the question might be met at once by an emphatic negative. It certainly ought to have been so met; and it cannot escape observation that those who so voted as to allow a member to escape from a decisive expression of opinion on an indefensible motion are not entitled to credit. The mover made charges of a serious nature against his Excellency the GOVERNOR, and the PREMIER Excellency the Governor, and the Premier was instrumental in leading the House to say that it would not now express an opinion upon them—that in fact the charges might be brought forward again, and be kept upon the business paper, as were certain resolutions in a previous session concerning what was elegantly termed "the tobacco racket." It is quite intelligible that he did not want to offend supporters, or to run the risk of exhibiting a schism among his friends, or even in his Cabinet, but to save himself he abandoned the duties of his position.

AUSTRALHAN MUTUAL PROVIDENT SOCIETY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE RERALD.

SIR,—As such a diversity of opinion exists among members as to whether they are shareholders or not, may I suggest to our very able chairmen that it would be well to obtain a sound legal opinion on the point and read it out at the opening of the meeting to-day—I think it would save a great deal of time and unnecessary interruption, and would enable members to have a clearer opinion on Hon. A Campbell's motion.

I am confident we are—and on this appears to me to bang the whole question of "published lists" or not. I regret extremely that this element of discord abould have been introduced into the society by Mr. Dibbs, and would ask members by voting for Hon. A. Campbell's motion to show their appreciation of his services as a director in sticking to those obnacious resolutions till he has again brought them under our notice for reconsideration.

I do not want any body in the world to know, unless I choose to tell them, how much my life is assured for, attill lers do I wish that through the touling for votes of election-coring agents the directory (as it assuredly would) should descend to a packed body or clique. The amounts of our policies and the number of our votes should be as secret as the heliot-box freelf.

Many think with myself, that if published lists should to decided on, the downfull of our hitherto prosperous society will commence. Therefore I say "lot well alones," let us keep to the system of election which has brought the society to its present high simples, simply amending its of ar as to give our commerce there or a votes and not alone of the dustralian Mutual Provident Scotety for street went of the Australian dustral read and abould be sourly less eit lees ground now; tot, as your

The visiting team received that bespitality for which,
in their intertainment of cricketers, the people of Bathurs; are noted; and invitations, supported by the strongest attractions, induced the few who had time to spare, to peatpene their departure for a day or two. Those whom stem incersity brought back to Sydney, were by no means glad to start upon "the home track." Upon each day of the match an excellent lunched was provided, and on Monday, sperch-day, Dr. Cortis (president, I believe, of the olab) took the chair, and the usual compliments passed between the chairman and the teams, through their captains. On Michay night the University men were invited to an amature entertainment in the new Hall of the School of Arts. The performance was carried out with spirit, and seme portions of it evoked a diright of considerable rocal and histrichie talent. The hall in which the outertainment took place is far superior of any similar room in Sydney, in the points not only of size, but of elegance and preportion. It has cost between $4000 and $6000, of which I believe that $1000 has been most kindly advaned without interest by Mr. Rutherford, of Cobb and Co.

On Tuerday, the Albert Ground was the scene of a cricket context which was novel in character and by no means deflect in interest. The members of the Barunit's for once—had invited the offivers of H M S.S. Pearl and H Cearlo to play a game of cricket, and to lunch with them. The invitation was cordially accepted, and a pleaseaut match was thoresait. During the day a number of Indies graced the pavilion, and nearly all the principal members of the Bar were prosent, whether as spectators or as players. Commender Hastings captained the Naval men, and Mr. Baston Ind the Bar. "Counsel" were first at the wicket, and the lang say in the matter, the tenth wicket falling for 161. Mr. J. Tecsor played a fine free to longs of 5', and Mr. G. Fitchandings hit about him powerfully for his 44, of which he canned H satings (25), and Mr. Blwyn not so successful, amassing a score of only 67; but Mr. Pearce (16). Commander Hastings (25), and Mr. Blwyn (inct out) hatted very well, Mr. Fitchandine's bowling being extremely good. The officers followed their innings, and made 50 or 60 runs with but one wicket down; but we have no record beyond of the first innings of each side. However, Mr. Rlwyn made 20, and Mr. Pearce the bulk of the balance. At lunchem, which was served by Compagnoni, Mr. R. M. Isaass took the chair, with Commodore Goodenough on his right hand. After the Royal teasits, the chairman proposed the health of the Commodore responded in a very happy speech, and three cheers were given for the Bar. The band of H. M.S. Pearl attended throughout the day, and discoursed sweet music. Some of the play on the part of the Bar was of the character to be expected from those whose visits to the cricket field are as those of angels; but on the other head there were instances of very good batting, bewling, and fledding on both sides. The scores are appended:

The Hagley station of the Launceston and Western Railway is on the boundary of the seates, and distant only two miles from Quamby House.

It is believed that when the farms which are now [vasant are ire-left, the rest-roll will considerably exceed $4.000 per annum, and that, with the stasdy and rapid rise which is taking place in the value of property in Tasmania, this will in a short time be susceptible of being largely increased.

with about 10,676 highly-bred Cattle.

N. GRIFFITHS has received instructions from Messrs. Rourke and Munro, on account of dissolution of partnership, to sell by public auction, at the Hall of Commerce, Sydney, on WEDNES-DAY, 7th of April next, at il o'dolok, Their noted station DOTSWOOD, together with the cattle, stock-borses, plant, &c.
DOTSWOOD comprises 16 blocks of country which all-sidjoin, and form together about the finest cattle property in Northern Queensland, the estimated area being about $59 equare miles of good grazing and fattening country.
THIS RUN is noted also for the extent and permanency of its water, as it commands about 300 miles frontage to permanently watered rivers and creeks; the Burdekin River founting a frontage on one side of about 30 miles, besides which the never-failing Keelbottom and Star Rivers and their numerous tributaries intersect the station, and afford an ample supply of water.
THE CARRYING capacity of this station is estimated to be at least 26,000 head of cuttle in the worst season.
The CATTLE are all quiet and easily worked, and consist at this date of about HORSES, about 200 head, including marse and feals. The station is amply provided with good working horses, and the young stock are the progeny of the well known pure-bred stallions KING JOHN and COLLECTOR, the latter of which is now in use in the breeding stud. The ABOVE PROPERTY has the advantage of having ready and constant market for all its fat stock, which are easerly bought by butchers and speculators, for the gold-fields in the immediate neighbourhood; it would also be a splendid investment for holders of fattoning runs to the westward and southward, as the stock are good travellers, and free from disease of any sort, and the cattles are all good colours and easily fattened.

DOTSWOOD HEAD STATION is about 55 miles westward of Townsville, 35 miles from Charters Towers, and the station is within easy reach of the Falmer River gold-fields.

THE BLOCES are pearly all surveyed, and are held.

is varied: on the west of Wilkie's Creek it is undulating open forest, thickly grassed, while on the other side, running up to the Condamine. The character of the country becomes more open, breaking into plains, all thickly grassed with the most autritious and fastening pasturage, having

Most of the fencing consists of posts and rails and three wires, and servarting the run from Broadwater Scrub the fence is additionally secured by paling, rendering it wallaby proof. In the item of fencing no expense has been spared, and within the last two years a very large outlay has been made to thoroughly protect and keep the herd within the boundaries of the run.

The purchased land in fee simple embraces an area of 9780 seres, principally agricultural and first-class pastoral. This, with the many improvements thereon. The purchase of the purchased land—2450 acres—will be included in the purchase at a studa cost, without reference to the fencing and other improvements thereon. The purchase will also be critified by the Queensland Land Act to select under this pro-emitive right, an additional 2500 acres on Daandine South, at 10s per acre.

In placing this property in the market the Auctioneers feel that the narrow limits of an advertisement will not admit of a sufficiently subgristic description of these stations, and invite intending purchasers to inspect them, when their own discrimination would at once place those runs in their highest estimation; and while the runs could not be surpassed, their posities could hardly be, as they are situated within a few miles of the rising town of IRVERELL, which is fast becoming the centre from which the great the maining population located on the easiers and mothers sides of New England draw their supplies. Reyond this, the 'shreedy-surveyed line of the ORRAT NORTHERM RAILWAY TO QUEENS-LAND will pass close by the station, thus placing it within easy seemannication with the METROPOLIS and SHIPPING FORT.
